

ITINERARY*

Friday, January 11, 2019: Our opening Mass will take place at the beautiful Basilica of the Santi XII Apostoli at 5:30 pm. The Opening Mix will be hosted at the newly renovated Casa Santa Maria. Tours of the new spaces will be offered. Dinner is on your own.

Saturday, January 12, 2019: We meet at the Basilica of St. Peter to celebrate Mass together at the Altar of the Chair. After, we will walk to the headquarters of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem for caff  and cornetti. Our host, Cardinal Edwin O'Brien '76 (Grand Master of the Order) will provide tours of the 15th century former palace. Lunch and Dinner on your own.

Sunday, January 13, 2019: Welcome back to the Janiculum! Our day begins with caff  and cornetti in the Red Room, followed by the annual Carl J. Peter Theological Lecture in the newly renovated Corso Auditorium. The lecture will be presented by Most Rev. Andrew Cozzens (Auxiliary Bishop of Saint Paul and Minneapolis.) We then celebrate Holy Mass together for our deceased alumni brothers in the Immaculate Conception Chapel, followed by pranzo in the Refectory. The annual Founder's Award will be presented during pranzo. Tours of the new spaces on campus will be offered. Dinner on your own.

Monday, January 14, 2019: We will travel by bus to the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls. Our host, Cardinal James Harvey '75 (Archpriest of the Basilica) will show us highlights of the new museum and excavations. After celebrating Holy Mass together at the Basilica, we will travel by bus to Ristorante Orazio in Caracalla for a delicious pranzone! Return by bus to the Michelangelo Hotel. Dinner on your own.

Tuesday, January 15, 2019: Two different tour times will be offered to see the Necropolis of the Via Triumphalis: 9:00 am and 2:30 pm. Not to be confused with the scavi under St. Peter's Basilica, this site is located inside Vatican City and features archaeological finds dating back to the first century. The tour lasts about 1.5 hours. For those not wishing to participate in the tour, this day has otherwise been kept open for attendees to plan a day trip, or schedule their own Roman sightseeing.

Wednesday, January 16, 2019: We will attend the Papal General Audience (pending the Holy Father's schedule). Later, meet at the Seminary in the early evening for Vespers followed by a farewell cocktail reception in the Red Room. Lunch and Dinner on your own.

Final schedule subject to change.*

Reunion Fee

The Reunion Fee of $350 covers all of the trip elements mentioned in the Itinerary and a NAC souvenir alumni gift. It does not include transportation to/from Rome, airport transfers, hotel accommodations, or meals not specifically listed in the Itinerary.

Registration

Please see our website: www.pnac.org/2019reunion or call the DC office: 202-541-5411